It is said that New Yorkers spend over $4,000,000 annually for umbrellas.

A New Jersey woman has been fatally poisoned from the bite of a pet squirrel.

It is estimated officially that the gross expenses of the World's Fair will reach $21,500,000.

The venerable elms on the Boston Common are dying, and the city forester is kept busy setting out young trees.

A man near Athens, Ga., has been taking gold for years from a stream near his farm, which panned out about $1 a day.

The wealth of rich men is very apt to be over-estimated. John Plankington, who died recently in Milwaukee, was supposed, during his life, to be worth at least $10,000,000, but an inventory of his property facts up only $1,000,000.

NAVAL NOTES.

A general order has been issued by the Secretary of the Navy restricting the consumption of coal. Commanding officers of vessels are instructed to ascertain what is the minimum amount of coal capable of giving a moderate speed, and the same will be adhered to on all special occasions. Vessels having sail power sufficient for cruising locomotion must use that means, whenever practicable, rather than steam.
